

Lending to Other Libraries

Making Requests

Libraries that use OCLC should submit requests to OCLC symbol NDO.

We no longer accept ALA forms or requests submitted via fax, telephone, or email. Non-OCLC libraries desiring to borrow materials from our library must submit a request through the ILLiad interlibrary loan system.

Copyright Compliance

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of Copyright Law.
