

Diversity Policy

The Kathrine R. Everett Law Library embraces the University's commitment to diversity in accordance with University policy or state and federal authorities. To that end, the Law Library is committed to supporting diversity in its staffing, workplace environment, services, and collections by:

- Promoting an environment that fosters mutual respect and acceptance of individual differences;
- Fostering a respectful and comfortable learning environment;
- Providing equitable access to all of its information, resources, and services;
- Encouraging the recruitment and hiring of employees without regard to their race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, ancestry, age, marital status, handicap, or veteran status;
- Supporting educational and professional development that fosters a culture of diversity;
- Developing a collection of resources that supports emerging and existing areas of diversity;
- Developing collaborative relationships with other University departments and organizations to fulfill the University's mission of diversity.
